

My family and I listen to Airl Radio in Salem, Oregon on a daily basis. They provide uplifting, family-focused music, information and news. Airl provides a clean, Christian perspective so often lacking in many of the other radio stations. Airl has been a great help in keeping my teenagers focused on being good people and citizens. Loosing Airl in Salem would be a huge loss to, especially the young people of this area.

It is in everyone's interest to have Airl remain in Salem, because it promotes clean, family oriented music--something that is hard to find!
